Contract Highlights:

- A Data driven and unbiased approach to marketing grain that takes the emotion and stress out of marketing decisions
- Diversifies and adds discipline to your marketing plan by averaging price over a period that historically has been higher than the harvest price
- 5¢ per bushel enrollment fee

Things to Consider:

- For bushels that need to move at Fall
- Historical price patterns are not a guarantee of future prices
- Price received may not be the best versus the life of the contract average
- It is an average of December settlement prices
- No attempt is made to accelerate or delay pricing based on market opinion or action during the averaging period
